Downtown Los Angeles

6/20/12

Leader: Jim Carlin

Distance: about 3.5 miles

Stair Steps: about 1000

This will be a tour of a portion of Downtown Los Angeles starting and ending at the Hill St. side of the Grand Central Market. Be forewarned - stairways are included.

This point can be reached via the Red Line Hill Street stop. People from the Valley need only take the Red Line subway.

People in the South Bay can take the Blue Line and transfer at 7th St.

I checked trains from Fullerton Station 120 E. Santa Fe Ave. to Union Station and the best train looks like the one leaving at 7:55 AM arriving at 8:40 AM – cost $7.50. You can either transfer to the Red Line or else walk to the market.

As with all downtown hikes, public transportation is recommended as parking is expensive and specific parking places unknown.

There will also be no after hike party.

Details are complicated, and will be provided along with a map on hike day.
